

MCA of Chicago/ LU 597 Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee

Purpose

Direct the operations of the apprenticeship program and training facility on behalf of the Joint Training Fund. Mandated by the Area Agreement.

Committee Members

Experience working with apprentices within your own firm.
Good temperament among labor representatives.

Things to Remember

Joint Training Fund

The Joint Training Fund has the responsibility and authority for the apprentice program operation which it has officially delegated to the JATC.

The future of our industry.

This is one of our most important positions since it represents the future of the entire industry.

Availability of an appointment to this committee is infrequent.

The JATC does have a Service Subcommittee, however, which has availability more often. The subcommittee is MCA of Chicago's Service Steering Committee.

Commitment

- Attend quarterly meetings, including in Ann Arbor during the UA Training Conference.
- Serve on the disciplinary subcommittee which meets when necessary.
- To be available to serve on the apprentice selection subcommittee.

Goals

- To keep apprentice training in top shape.
- To ensure good discipline and scholarship among the apprentices.
- To select the best apprentice candidates from the available pool.
